Louisville City Court.

The court assembled at the regular hour yesterday morning, the Hon. E. S. Craig on the bench, when the following business was transacted:

An order was made to have Oscar Burns discharged from the workhouse.

The following drunken cases were disposed of in the manner mentioned: Luke Langdon, fined $5; Pat Bodine, fined $5 and own bond taken in $500 for fifteen days; Geo. Right, fined $3; James Kirkham, fined $15 and held in $100 for thirty days; Patrick Scanlan, fined $15 and held in $100 for thirty days; James Dord, fined $3; Wm. Casey, fined $3; Michael Lynch, fined $3.

Geo. Sharp and M. B. James, setting up a gift lottery; bail each in $1,000 to answer.

H. C. Talbott, obtaining money under false pretenses; continued till next Monday.

Jno. O'Neil and Thos. Dickson, shooting John Myers with intent to kill; discharged on motion of the City Attorney.

Dr. A. R. Jones, obtaining money under false pretenses; examination waived and bond in $800 to answer.

Albert Reed, negro, robbing the money drawer of Adam Stammiman; bail in $200 to answer.

J. Fisher, permitting gambling in his house; discharged.

MOVEMENTS OF RACE STOCK.—The Lexington Observer and Reporter says several of the finest bloods that Mr. Alexander's stables can boast, are already being forwarded—some to the East and some to the West.—to be put in training to contend for the purses offered by the various enterprising associations of the country. The celebrated three-year old, LEXINGTON, with some others, arrived here on Sunday night, and left on Monday morning for the fall meeting at St. Louis. They are under the control of the celebrated trainer Neil Coyle.

On Monday, another batch arrived, and left on yesterday for Fordham, N. Y. Among the number was the peerless Asteroid and far-famed Idlewild, in charge of the veteran turfman Allcock. It is a venture of no little importance on the part of Mr. Alexander to send a horse like Asteroid, such a distance, with the intention of running him this season: but we hope he will meet with such success as to repay him amply for the risk.

SAD OCCURRENCE—A MAN CRUSHED TO DEATH.—Tuesday morning, at about 6 o'clock, an employe of the Nashville and Decatur railroad, named L. G. Cassidy, was crushed to death while coupling passenger cars at the Taylor Depot, Nashville. He had got on the wrong side of the curving track, and the cars, coming so closely together in consequence of the turn in the road, crushed him. He lived about twenty-five minutes after the occurrence, but spoke only once. He was carried to the Atlanta Saloon, near the corner of Broad and Summer streets, and, in the afternoon, his remains were interred in the Catholic Cemete ry.

OMITTED.—In our notice yesterday of the great and enthusiastic demonstration to the President and his party on Tuesday, we omitted to mention that our friends, Messrs. Baird Bros., wholesale milliners, corner of Sixth and Main, were equally as enthusiastic as their neighbors in extending an invitation of welcome to the President and party. They had a beautiful banner unfurled to the breeze, with the following words, in bold letters, inscribed upon it: "We are glad to see you, Andy." It was noticed by the multitude, and smiled upon by the hero himself.

CROWDED.—Masonic Temple was crowded from the stage to the doors yesterday afternoon with ladies and children in attendance at the European Panorama matinee, for the benefit of St. Andrew's church and school. The exhibitions will be repeated every night during the week, and a matinee will be given on Saturday afternoon. Master Frankel officiated at the organ yesterday afternoon, and handled it with the skill of an old performer. An exhibition takes place to-night. These exhibitions are to benefit a good cause, and we hope they will be liberally patronized.

DANGEROUS.—It is dangerous for persons to walk in front of the new buildings on Fourth street, near Green, after dark. The pavement is occupied by boulders, and what in left of it is open for the reception of persons who may chance to fall into the cellars.

☞ The statement in our police report that Mr. Mathews was sent back to the workhouse was an error. He was discharged.

Louisville Theater.

The Louisville was crowded last night with a fashionable audience to witness Macbeth, which we never saw better cast or better rendered. Mr. Dillon as Macbeth shows him at the very top of his profession. There is perhaps no character that Shakspeare portrayed more difficult to personate than this, or that requires higher conception. The noble Thane, who is the Mars of his countrymen, and honored next by his King, permits his o'erleaping ambition to wither his laurels, sully his honor and drag him to destruction. Mr. Dillon not only conceives the character correctly, but throughout, makes his audience read and feel his conception, by his voice, manner and gesture. We have seen McCready, Kean, Forrest and one hundred others represent this great creation of Shakspeare, and we say in all candor that none excel Mr. Dillon in the part, and that few, if any of them, equal him. With such plays and such actors the theater become the grand school that was intended, and the old and young may be entertained and instructed. We hope to see the house crowded nightly while Mr. Dillon remains with us. We must not omit to mention some of those who supported minor parts. Mrs. Canter's Lady Macbeth was nicely conceived and well enacted. We had not expected half so much from her, though we had never seen her in any important part before. The Macduff of Mr. Dond was splendid, though he appeared ph sically very weak, and, on inquiring, we learned that he had risen from his sick bed, where he had suffered all day, to play the part. Mr. Gossiner's Banquo was very good, and developed more ability in him than his Appius Claudius gave us to expect. All the minor parts were well sustained, and the music of the piece was well rendered. The grand dance of La Zingarella, by Miss Wesner and Miss Sheffield, was splendidly done, and was received raptnrously. To-night Mr. Dillon's Belpheger, as originally played by him, and which he played one hundred consecutive nights in New York to overflowing houses, will be presented. Those who would get the best places should secure their seats early, as the house will no doubt be jammed. Misses Wesner and Sheffield will repeat their beautiful double dance, by request.

Trotting Match at Woodlawn.

We announce this morning a trotting match at Woodlawn, on Friday, for the benefit of Mrs. H. W. Farris. The first race, mile heats, best three in five, is for a purse of $300, with three entries. All of these horses can trot under 2:40, and are closely matched. This will be an exciting and well contested race.

The second race—the "fat man's race"—owners to drive to wagon or buggy, will be mile heats, best three in five, for a purse of $300. Race to comeoff at 3 o'clock.

The cars will leave the Frankfort depot at 2:10 o'clock, P. M. The day's sport will be exciting, and we shall expect to see a rousing attendance.

The tender of this compliment to Mrs. Farris, a most excellent lady, is most worthily bestowed. Her friends intend that this shall be a rousing benefit, and we believe the day's sport is such as will induce a large attendance.

☞ We had the pleasure yesterday afternoon of a call from J. Allen Murray, Esq., Secretary of the Breckinridge Agricultural and Mechanical Association. Mr. M. is in the enjoyment of superb health and promises an entertainment in his "pennyroyal" county that will even surpass the Blue-grass. Our friend Murray is an old typo, and of course a thorough gentleman.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY.—Pat. Gagen failed to see the President while in our city, and tried to console himself yesterday by awilling "bust-head," and became very drunk and disorderly, and was lodged in the First-street stationhouse by officer Donahne.

☞ W. D. Gallagher, Esq., United States Depository, gives notice that on Saturday, the 15th inst., no checks will be paid at the Depositary. On this day we suppose he will haud over to Col. R. R. Bolling the books, papers and moneys of the office.

SNOW-BALLING IN AUGUST.—On the last day of August Governor Smyth, of New Hampshire, telegraphed to the Manchester (N. H.) Mirror, from Mount Washington, one of the White Mountains: "Snow is falling fast, and the visitors are engaged in snow balling."

☞ The Republicans made a platform at Baltimore, in 1864, nominated and elected Andy Johnson on it. They gained the election on that platform. Now they denounce their President, Johnson, as a traitor for living up to that platform.

☞ Atlanta is in a state of excitement owing to the cholera brought there by a detachment of United States troops from this city.

☞ Our readers are respectfully referred to the new advertisements under their classified headings in this morning's paper.

☞ The Booneville (Ind. Empire) says a number of cases of milk sickness, occurring in that town, have been reported.

☞ The members of the Walnut-street Baptist church enjoyed themselves last evening at their regular monthly reunion.

☞ Large quantities of buckwheat have been sown in all parts of Indiana. The crop looks well.

☞ Several turnpike bridges in Wayne county were swept away by high water the first of the present week.

☞ The apple crop in the northern counties of Indiana is said to be exceedingly fair.

☞ The sorghum crop is looking exceedingly well in Indiana, and it is expected that there will be large yield.

☞ Messrs. Store & Ayers have just put in operation a new paper mill at Brookville, Indiana.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

Judge Craig, of the City Court, Overrides the Decision of the Court of Appeals,

Gold not the Basis of a Charge of Larceny.

The statutes of the State of Kentucky provide that a person who steals four dollars or over is guilty of a felony, and shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years. Some time since a man by the name of Brown was tried for stealing a five dollar bill. At the time, the counsel for the accused asked the judge to instruct the jury that the amount stolen must be equal to four dollars or over in gold, which motion was overruled, and the accused convicted for one year. The case was appealed, and the judgment of the court set aside, the Court of Appeals deciding that to constitute grand larceny the amount stolen must equal in value four dollars in gold, as specie is the basis of all trade, and this has since been regarded as the law of the State.

In the City Court, yesterday morning, a negro boy, by the name of Reid, was before the Court, charged with stealing $5 50 in script. The proof as to the larceny was conclusive, but the point was broached as to whether the defense was that of petit or grand larceny. According to the decision of the Court of Appeals it plainly reduced the offense to that of the lesser grade, as $1 in gold amounted to $5 74. Judge Craig was of the opinion that the decision of the Court of Appeals was wrong. He looked upon the statute of grand larceny as applying to any one who stole $4 or upwards, be that in gold, greenbacks or anything else. He thought that the value of the goods must be governed by the currency. The negro allnded to above was held in $200, to answer the charge of felony. The question as to the constitutionality of the decision of the Court of Appeals will be decided. The matter is an important one, and we hope that it will be permanently decided at an early day.

School Matters—Meeting of the School Board.

The School Board met at the usual hour last evening, there being a full attendance.

Robt. Skene was sworn in as a member from the Eleventh ward, in place of Mr. Monroe.

Mr. Miller, in the absence of the chairman of the Finance Committee, reported that the school fund was not sufficient to establish a school at Germantown for the ninth and tenth grades.

Messrs. Dr. Gilpin, Hebel, Moser and Elliott spoke in favor of the establishing of a school at Germantown, and against a motion to reconsider the vote by which a resolution to that effect was passed.

Mr. Vaughan was in favor of reconsideration, and thought the school unnecessary.

The motion to reconsider was lost by a vote of 16 to 5.

The committee on music reported in favor of Professors Whipple and Price being employed as musical teachers in the schools.

The question was asked as to whether Mr. Charles Hebel had been examined by the committee.

There was some debate between the committee and school board, which was kept up for some time.

A number of recommendations in favor of Mr. Hebel were read.

Dr. Gilpin moved that the action upon the report of the musical committee, nominating certain gentlemen as teachers, be suspended. Carried.

The board then went into an election for two musical teachers for the ensuing year. The following was the result:

Prof. Whipple	14
Prof. Price	14
Chas. Hebel	3

A resolution passed to allow the principal teacher of the Germantown school (to be established) $700 per annum, the janitor $8 per month and $12 per month for the renting of the building.

The board adjourned until the first Monday in October.

To Our Merchants and Business Men.

We were honored with a call yesterday from Mrs. M. A. Meeken. Mrs. M. was a resident of Atlanta and in affluent circumstances when General Sherman banished the citizens from that place. By the vicissitudes of war she has been reduced to poverty, but, with a spirit that scorns dependence, she has set to work to earn an honest livelihood. She will call upon our merchants to solicit advertisements for the Nashville Gazette, Selma Times, New York News and other leading papers of the country. She is also engaged in writing a historical romance, founded on the events of the late war, entitled "Kernwood, or After Many Days." This work is now in the hands of the Methodist publishing house at Nashville, and will shortly be issued. It is evident from the conversation of Mrs. M. that she is a lady of talent, culture and refinement, and we feel confident that "Kernwood" will gain a wide-spread popularity. This work is gotten up by subscription. In addition to these efforts to gain an honorable subsistence Mrs. M. is engaged in a labor of love, that of soliciting subscriptions to purchase a portion of the battlefield of Shiloh in which to decently inter the remains of the Confederate soldiers who fell on that famous field. Mrs. W. comes to us with testimonials from the highest sources, and we take pleasure in recommending her to our citizens, who, we feel assured, will assist her with that liberality for which they are proverbial.

☞ W. D. Gallagher, Esq., United States Depository, gives notice that on Saturday, the 15th inst., no checks will be paid at the Depositary. On this day we suppose he will haud over to Col. R. R. Bolling the books, papers and moneys of the office.

The Grand Reception of the President.

Our notice yesterday of the reception of Andrew Johnson, the President of this mighty Republic, was, owing to the hasty manner in which it was gotten up, imperfect, and we regret that we cannot at this time notice all of the prominent features of the procession, but we cannot refrain from alluding to the wagon of H. T. Monsch & Co., oyster-dealers, on Third street, which was most beautifully decorated, and which elicited the admiration of all along the line of march. The wagon was most beautifully decorated with the national colors, &c., and bore the following mottoes: "One Union and one Andy Johnson;" "36 States and no Bureau"—"Congress is a Stormy"—"The Veto all Right" "Andy Johnson, the Reconstructor." Great credit is due Mr. Monsch for the manner of this display. One of the most beautifully decorated houses on Main street was that of the wholesale saddlery store of W. H. Stokes & Co., between Fifth and Sixth. To describe the beautiful and tasteful decorations here would occupy more time and space (were we able) to record than we have. The entire display was made by B. F. Chase, Esq., one of the members of the firm.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—A man named M. Max was arrested on a warrant for assault and battery yesterday by Deputy Marshal Meglemery, and placed in the First-street stationhouse. The assault, it is alleged, was committed some two weeks ago upon the person of Mrs. Geismer, Max's sister-in-law. The parties all live in the same house, and since Max's marriage into the family, an event that occurred some three weeks since, the parties have been continually quarreling. During one of these quarrels, some two weeks ago, Max chased Mrs. Geismer, who was in a delicate situation, up stairs with a stick. On Tuesday last Mrs. Geismer gave birth to a child prematurely, occasioned, it is alleged, by the rough treatment of Max. On the other hand it is said that the premature birth was the result of her own imprudent acts. The case will undergo an investigation before the Police Court this morning, and the facts in the case elicited.

RETURNED.—One of the prisoners who escaped from the jail at Charlestown, Ind., returned to the place of his confinement and surrendered himself.

AN IMPORTANT MATTER.

A Motion Regulating the Confinement of Prisoners in the Workhouse—The Matter Still under Advisement.

The new statute governing the action of the Judge of the City Court provides that when a prisoner is presented for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, when the proof is sufficient, he shall be fined, and required to give bail, and, in default of that, shall be committed to the workhouse. It has been decided by the former Judges of the court that the bond shall first be canceled before any credit can be made upon the fine. On the 17th of last month Martin Birmingham, in default of paying a fine of $15 and giving bail in $1,000 for one year, was committed to the workhouse. He was yesterday brought in and the required bond given, or at least the bond as ordered.

Upon the bond being given the question arose as to whether the accused could still be held in custody for the payment of the fine, or whether the fine was canceled or not. Mr. Elliott, the defender of the city, took the part of the accused, and argued that the first matter to be settled was the fine. The court now has the case under advisement and will decide it in a few days.

MASONIC TEMPLE—ATLANTIC, EUROPEAN AND ECLECTIC PANORAMA.—Another great concourse of people witnessed the panorama last evening. The eloquent manner in which the different scenes were explained elicited the admiration of every one present. We would encourage all to witness this unrivaled exhibition. Let none hesitate, but go and spend a few pleasant hours. We have seldom seen such an array of sprightly, joyous countenances as were present at the matinee yesterday afternoon. The large hall of the Masonic Temple was literaly jammed. We are glad to see the interest taken by parents in this beautiful paiuting. May it always continue so.

I. O. O. F.—The Grand Lodge of the United States, I. O. O. F., will hold its annual communication in Baltimore, Maryland, during the present month, beginning on Monday, 17th inst. Business of more than ordinary consequence will be transacted at the coming session. The grand body will be of a character to reflect the highest credit on the constituency in every part of the country. We have and little in presuming that, in respect to intellectual capacity and moral influence, it will be sure to compare favorably with any legislative or other deliberative assembly in the land. The R. W. Grand Representatives from Kentucky are

P. G. M. M. J. Durham, Danville.
P. G. M. M. S. Dewees, Lexington.
P. G. M. John F. Fisk, Covington.
P. G. M. A. H. Ransom, Covington.

COMMITTED.—In the Democrat of yesterday we made mention of the arrest, on a bench warrant, of Dr. A. R. Jones, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. The accused had an examination before the City Court yesterday, and was, in default of $600 bail, committed to jail.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY.—The following persons were incarcerated in the City-street stationhouse last night, upon the above charge: Henry Schaffer and Henry Simons, by officer Donahue; Lewis Shaw, m. c., by officer Ryan; Paul Kelcher and T. J. Gilkerson, by officers Foreman and Stallings.

HOMELESS.—Nancy Bush, a little white girl, aged 13, was taken out of a negro den of infamy up town last night by officers Foreman and Stallings and placed in the Clay street station house. She has neither house nor friends, and should be sent to the house of refuge.

FATAL AFFRAY AT CAVE CITY.—We are informed that on Tuesday two negroes employed at the Cave City Hotel became engaged in a difficulty, in which one stabbed the other, killing him immediately. We did not learn the names of the parties.

STEALING PANTS.—G. A. Pratt was placed in the First-street stationhouse yesterday, by officers Shindler and Cochrane charged with stealing a pair of pants worth over four dollars from A. R. Enley.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.—We have received Peterson's and Ballou's magazines for October, both charming numbers, from Messrs. Bradley & Gilbert. All of the latest publications are to be found upon the counters of those enterprising news dealers.

☞ We understand that the indefatigable secretary of the Breckinridge county fair has succeeded in procuring the services of he Western Star Band for the week's exhibition, commencing October 2d.

☞ The Irish citizens of Nashville had an enthusiastic meeting Tuesday night, indorsing the policy of President Johnson.

☞ Edward Tinker, charged with stealing a gun, was yesterday committed to jail by officer Wm. White.

THE MEETING LAST NIGHT

The Soldiers and Sailors Indorse the President.

COMMITTEE FOR THE CLEVELAND CONVENTION.

Resolutions, &c.

Pursuant to announcement, a convention of sailors and soldiers favorable to the President's policy met at the courthouse last night. Colonel W. P. Boone presided, and Captain I. B. Webster acted as Secretary.

Colonel J. Rowau Boone offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

We, soldiers and sailors of Louisville, here assembled in Convention, express our sentiments concerning the political issues now before the people, in which are involved the existence of the Union, and the tranquility and welfare of our country, do hereby resolve as follows, viz:

1. That we will cherish the same devotion to the Union and the Constitution of the United States that animated us during the late war for the suppression of the rebellion, and we do hereby reaffirm that "Union must and shall be preserved."

2. That in our capacities as soldiers and sailors having been, in common with our comrades of the army and navy at large, the instruments by which, with the favor of God, the efforts made to sever the Union by force of arms were rendered futile, we now feel that we are not arrogating to ourselves peculiar rights, important when we demand, as the fruits of our labor and peril, and in the name of our fallen comrades, that the Union of the Thirty-seven States, which suppose our great government, shall be recognized as existing intact, and that each S ate shall be permitted to receive the benefits of the Union and the full rights and privileges as a member thereof.

3. The preservation of the Union, the Constitution and the laws made pursuant thereto was the sole object of the late war, and that we look with indignation upon the attempts made to suspend the Union for the purpose of exacting issues only legitimate to be settled in a sectional way whose principle, seem to be that of rule or ruin.

5. That the Cleveland National Convention of Union soldiers and sailors, lately in session called to indorse President Johnson's Constitutional restoration policy and the Philadelphia National Convention of the loyal people; therefore,

Resolved, That we secure our full approbation, and this meeting will accordingly appoint delegates to represent this city at said convention, the delegates named to have the power of the same becomes necessary, to select other delegates.

6. That in Andrew Johnson we recognize a patriotic President in whom we can safely confide, and to whom we owe gratitude; and that for his noble efforts to restore the former and sustain the latter, we extend to him the earnest whole-soul thanks and sympathies of representatives of the army and navy whose services were freely given to the sustenance of the Union during the fiery ordeal through which it has recently passed in triumph, and we pledge him our hearts and hands in the Constitution our pledge of fealty now, and will uphold him in his constitutional efforts for their preservation.

7. That we feel gratified that our city was yesterday honored by a visit from his Excellency President Johnson, Secretary of State Wm. H. Seward, and other distinguished statesmen and officers who accompanied the President, and are proud of the spirited enthusinam which characterized our citizens in their efforts to do honor to the eminent patriots.

8. That the city papers be requested to publish a copy of these resolutions, with a list of the designated delegates.

Captain J. T. Gathright offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That we fully indorse the action of our distinguished fellow-citizen and soldier, General Lovell H. Rousseau, in the late Congress and upon the steps of the national capitol in thrashing Mr. Grinnell for his infamous conduct toward both the General himself and the people he represented.

The following gentlemen were appointed delegates to attend the Cleveland convention:

Gen. Grant in Cincinnati.

Attempt of Sands, Eggleston, Dickson and Other Rebel Jacobins, to Hunt Him Down.

The "Reds" in Blue and Band Call to Serenade Him.

The Jacobins Pursue Him to the Theater

General Grant Rebukes Them.

[From the Cincinnati Enquirer of Yesterday.]

Yesterday morning a special dispatch was sent to a contemporary in this city, announcing that General Grant, Major General Rawlings and General Stoneman were on board the train from Indianapolis coming to Cincinnati. Ex-Marshal Sands and other Jacobins hearing the news, held a caucus and resolved, if possible, to take the General under their wings, and commit him to the policy of the Radical party. They conceived the opportunity an excellent one, and erred nothing for the accidental visit of the General in leaving the Presidential party at Indianapolis, and coming to Cincinnati a few hours in advance of them, that he might fulfill the duty of a devoted and affectionate son, and spend this brief time with his aged parents and relatives in Covington.

Their efforts to procure troops to go to the depot and escort the General and suite from the depot to the Burnet House failed. The train arrived, and the General was not serenaded by a private conveyance and were driven to the Burnet, and entered that hotel unobserved, the General carrying his carpetsack from the carriage to his rooms. In ten minutes after, the General, accompanied by Major General Rawlings, returned to the carriage and were driven over the river to Covington, where they dined and spent the afternoon at the house of Alex. Keith, Esq. The General and Chief of Staff returned to the Burnet and took tea. After tea General Grant, in company with a friend, left his rooms by a back way, and went to Wood's Theater, where they occupied Mr. Allen's private box, to witness Miss Thompson's performances of East Lynne. While the General was thus enjoying himself at the theater, the crowd was increasing at the Burnet House, inside and out, notwithstanding a heavy rain was falling. Congressman Eggleston, Ex-Marshal Sands, Judge Dickson, Fred. Hassaurek, Councilman Wulff, and other Radicals were in the hall and went so far as to force themselves into his private rooms. They were informed by General Rawlings that General Grant was not there, but still they lingered around, until half-past nine o'clock, when the "Boys in Blue," with blue capes and caps, and each carrying a torch or transparency, under command of L. F. Baker, who wore a white cape and a red lantern in the top of his cap, and flourished a baton of considerable proportions, made their appearance.

They claimed to be from the Fifteenth ward, and headed by a brass band, marched along Fourth to Vine, down Vine to Third, and wheeled into a dress-parade position in front of the Burnet. Besides these there were present many hundreds of citizens. The band played tune after tune, the crowd called loudly for the band and gave three groans for the President, but the General did not appear. The people then called for Grant, and screamed vociferously for Grant. Finally, to satisfy the ardent that General Grant was not there, and dispose of the "sell" as cheaply as possible, it was arranged that Col. Henry L. Burnet should appear on the balcony of Rawlings to the crowd. A passage-way was made, and General Rawlings stood on the front balcony. Colonel Burnet said:

"My fellow citizens—General Grant left the house about seven o'clock, and will not return until a late hour. He did not know of this demonstration or he would have been present to receive you. I have the honor, gentlemen, to present to you in his stead, his right arm, Maj. Gen. Rawlings, Chief of Staff."

Loud cheers were given, after which Gen. Rawlings said:

"Gentlemen—I can only make the same speech to you that Gen. Grant does," and Gen. Rawlings bowed and withdrew amid much laughter and cries of "Sold, sold, sold."

The leaders, Eggleston & Company, smarted handsomely under their failure, but, after leaving the Burnet House, were informed that General Grant was at Wood's Theater. Their impudence and effrontery were not exhausted, and not willing to take a hint, wanted to be kicked before receiving full satisfaction. The Royal Jacobins marched to the theater, Eggleston and others ascended the theater and Mr. Allen, the manager, was requested to go and inform General Grant that there was a crowd of citizens on the outside who desired to see him. Mr. Allen, always courteous, went into the private box, and conveyed the intelligence to General Grant, who replied: "I cannot and will not see them. Please tell their commander to come to me."

Mr. Allen communicated with commander T. F. Baker, who, with pompous show and haughty tread, marched down the theater, and with others, including our reporter, entered Gen. Grant's private box. Without giving Captain Baker a moment for a single word, Gen. Grant approached him and said in a firm tone:

"SIR: I AM NO POLITICIAN. THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES IS MY COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF. I CONSIDER THIS DEMONSTRATION IN OPPOSITION TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES—ANDREW JOHNSON. IF YOU HAVE ANY REGARD FOR ME YOU WILL TAKE YOUR MEN AWAY. I AM GREATLY ANNOYED AT THIS DEMONSTRATION. I CAME HERE TO ENJOY THIS THEATRICAL PERFORMANCE. I WILL BE GLAD TO SEE YOU ALL TO-MORROW WHEN THE PRESIDENT ARRIVES."

This was a terrible punishment, and Captain Baker withdrew, smarting severely under the lash. Messrs. Eggleston & Co. were crest-fallen and completely annihilated, and the entire company retired to their homes terribly mortified at the rebuke they richly deserved and merited from the General of the United States armies.

At the close of the performance General Grant took the arm of his friend and walked down to the Burnet House, on their way about one hundred indecent vulgar Radicals followed close at his heels, cheering and screaming as if not yet satisfied with the severe blow the General had dealt their friends. It was certainly a rich scene, and it will be a long time before the event will be forgotten in Cincinnati.

THE SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' CONVENTION.—The convention of soldiers and sailors, who indorse the President's policy, will begin at Cleveland on Monday next. Among other letters that have been written, indorsing the purposes of the convention, is one from Capt. John L. Worden, who commanded the Monitor in her famous contest with the rebel ram Merrimac, in Hampton Roads, in 1862. The Rev. Stephen H. Tyng, of New York, has been invited to fill the post of chaplain to the convention, but has declined on account of other engagements. He writes, however, that he is in favor of the objects of the convention, and that he "cannot refuse, therefore, to approve and indorse the meeting which is proposed, or the platform on which it avows itself to stand."

Dr. Jones—An Awkward Situation.

The Nashville Banner, of yesterday, publishes the following:

AWKWARD SITUATION.—We publish, on our first page, an account, from the Louisville Democrat of yesterday, of a mishap which has befallen Dr. A. R. Jones, recently of this city.

The doctor's sign has been familiar to pedestrians on Broderick street for years, and still hangs over the sidewalk of our aristocratic thoroughfare.

His office was principally visited by those whose ailments were of such a nature as to make privacy desirable—fast young fellows, whose little indiscretions were carefully concealed from legitimate members of the medical profession.

It is a matter of doubt whether Dr. J. ever received a diploma from any faculty, although his experience as a clerk or prescriptionist in one of our well known drug stores, perhaps, gave him some insight into the mystery of compounding those popular specifics from which he derived such profit during the war.

He had been in the city some twelve years previous to leaving us about a month since—coming originally from the neighborhood of Sparta For the sake of his friends here, we trust that the affair in Louisville will not hold out as badly as at first reported.

Certainly, in the course of our inquiries, we have heard alleged against him in consigees of a discharged or criminal nature during his residence in Nashville.

☞ The Cincinnati Enquirer sums up one day's report of the suicidal mania, in New York city on Monday, as follows:

Harry Clark, photographer on Broadway, poisoned himself on account of his jealousy of a courtesan. Bernard Conroy, tailor, blew out his brains in a fit of delirium tremens. Perine, an Italian, leaped out of a second story window. Mary Smith jumped into East river. Several other attempts were made the same day. Love and liquor were the causes.

YESTERDAY'S NOON DISPATCHES

FROM NEW YORK.

Mortuary in New York, Brooklyn and Vicinity—A Probable Murder—An Arrest for Counterfeiting Material—Arrival of Historical—Interesting Mexican News—General Hamilton and the Texas Legislature—The Missing Texas Crop of Cotton.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.

There were eleven cases and nine deaths from cholera reported in the city yesterday.

The cholera has almost entirely disappeared from Brooklyn, and the daily returns are soon to be discontinued.

Frederick Pittmeyer, one of the bankers at the Hotel de Lyon, on Fulton street, was found dead at the door of his boarding-house, yesterday morning, about one o'clock, having been shot through the head, in a very mysterious manner, by parties unknown. Detectives Pay, John Pickett, and Charles Manager, who were with him the night previous, have been arrested on suspicion of killing him.

John Brown, formerly an engraver and lithographer, in Nassau street, was yesterday up before commissioner Osborne charged with having a transfer press, dies, and other counterfeiting implements in his possession.

The litigation instituted between General Santa Anna and Isidro Meigrs, his alleged agent, has been discontinued, an equitable settlement having been arranged.

Madame Adelaide Ristori, the great tragic actress, her two children, and a troupe of forty performers, arrived in the city yesterday as passengers on the steamship Pierre, from Brest.

The Herald's Monterey (Mexico) correspondence, dated August 31st, says: Gen Sheridan, on his recent visit to Rio Grande, had strongly advised Cortina to submit to the authority of Carvajal, and any such arrangement between them would be of great injury to the Mexican Republican cause.

Confidence was greatly restored by Sheridan's visit among the merchants and commercial men in Matamoras, and on the border goods were being sent again into the interior.

Carvajal, Cuenas, and the other officers concerned in receiving the surrender of Mejia, had been summoned before a council by Juarez, which dissatisfied with the terms granted the Imperialists.

Maximilian had received more money from France, and it was thought the murder of a number of foreign residents at Nonoro was made a pretext for retaining the French troops after the day named for their withdrawal.

The French rule in Monterey was a reign of terror to the Mexicans. Fines were exacted without receipts being given, citizens were insulted, imprisoned and shot for words uttered in casual conversation with their friends, and property confiscated. Gen. Quiraga, who commanded the Imperial troops in the city, has offered his services to the Liberals, but they have not yet been accepted. The bearer of his communication was imprisoned, and will probably be shot.

The French were to evacuate San Luis Potosi on the 8th of September.

The Herald's Galveston correspondence says:

Gen. Hood was invited to a seat in the legislative halls by a committee, and his appearance was received with silent honors, all the members standing respectfully until he was conducted to a seat.

The coming Texas crop of cotton is estimated at 30,000 bales.

Further Returns from the Maine Election—Colored Soldiers Murdered in Texas—Chinese Labor for the South—Negroes Sold into Slavery for Debt—A Silver Vein Struck in Arkansas—Effect of the Escape of the Fenian Prisoners—Seizure of the Propeller Congress.

NEW YORK, September 12.

The Tribune has the following from Augusta, Maine:

Further returns largely increase the Union majority in this State. It will reach 20,000, and the closest congressional district is carried by 4,000. Our majority is vastly larger than ever was gained in Maine before by any party, and is nearly double the average Union majority of the past few years.

The Tribune has the following special from New Orleans:

Reliable information has been received here that six colored soldiers were recently murdered at Jefferson, Texas. The military commander of that post had the dead bodies shown to the Mayor, and intimated to him that some one would be held responsible for the killing of Union men in that section. The lives of Unionmen are frequently threatened.

Governor Wells and the Hon. Thomas Coleman, Chief of the Bureau of Emigration, had an interview with Newman, a San Francisco merchant, and his agent, Mr. Strickland, who proposed to introduce Chinese labor here in October, 1867. The act of Congress of 1866 is regarded as a barrier to their schemes.

A Tribune's Nashville special says:

Under the provisions of Gen. Grant's order, No. 44, four men were secretly arrested in Giles county by the military authorities and brought to this city, on the charge of murdering a negro. The civil authorities refused to honor the murderers on requisition, and, after the men had been in jail for a few days, the Giles County Court authorized that they be returned, thinking that under these conditions the Provost Marshal General sent the prisoners here to-day.

A Tribune's Chicago dispatch has the following: In Clarke county, Alabama, on Sunday last, a man who was recently
